OFFICE OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF POLICE,
CITY HALL BUILDING,

TERRE HAUTE, IND., January 1, 1904.

To His Honor Mayor Henry C. Steeg and Members of the Board of Public Safety,

GENTLEMEN:

In presenting this the first annual report of the Police Department operating under the City Charter, a complete tabulated statement of the work performed by this department will be found in this report, together with other information submitted for your approval. In summing up the year's work accomplished by this department, which has been successful because all the members have worked together in harmony and perfect discipline, it is not necessary for me now, in making this report to go into lengthy detail, lauding the efficiency and good work done in this City the past year. That I will leave to others who observe closely the daily workings of this department, the citizens in general and taxpayers, the ones who are directly interested.

HARVEY V. JONES, Desk Sergeant.

DAVID REED, Desk Sergeant.

Matthew Dorley.

Nicholas Feiler.

Frank Fedderson.

I would like to state, however, that the time has arrived when this City should increase the Police Department by several additional Patrolmen. It no doubt will be news to a great many of our citizens to know that the same number of men are patroling our streets at present, both day and night, that covered the same territory nearly twenty years ago. Taking into consideration the wonderful increase in population, the spread and growth of the City, with numerous new factories and suburbs since 1885, I am safe in saying that this City is as free from crime and depredations as any other City in the country, and more so than most of them with equal population, patroled as it is with so few officers.

Sylvester Doyle.

James Bishop.

John Ryle.

Daniel Mullen.

Wm. H. Westbrook.

John Brown.

The difference is not much in salaries, taking into consideration additional names on pay roll that did not exist in former years, that of Police Captain, Sergeant, Clerk and Surgeon, and an increase of five per cent. that was given on salaries some time ago.

The boundaries of the Patrolmen's districts at present, both day and night, remain the same exactly as they were in 1885 and years previous. Therefore it is time, in my judgment, that this question should be taken up and considered and that this City provide and maintain a Police Department that the growth in area and population of the City justly entitles it to, and I would recommend an additional increase of at least eight or ten Patrolmen at the earliest time an appropriation can be made.

It shall be my endeavor in the future, as in the past, to keep the Department up to a standard creditable to the City and myself, comparing favorably with other Cities of the same size and population. It is a source of gratification to any man at the head of a Police Department to know that his work and strict attention to duty are appreciated and that the men under him are always willing and glad to carry out all orders or instructions given them, without comment or criticism, and that all have the greatest respect for and show every courtesy to their superior officers. Such, I am glad to say, is the condition of the Police Department in this City today.

William Gregory.

Fred Armstrong.

Thos. C. Vanosdall.

I wish to return thanks to Judge James E. Piety, Judge Samuel C. Stimson, Prosecuting Attorney Harry Wallace and his able deputies, Fred W. Beal and John Gerdink, for their valuable assistance to us during the past year. To Sheriff Daniel Fasig and his corps of very efficient and competent deputies. To James J. Daugherty, Chief of Fire Department and Assistant Chief William Armstrong and to all men under their command, for their cooperation and assistance to this department many times during the past year. Also to City Attorney P. M. Foley and Deputy City Attorney Isaac Torner for their advice and assistance in numerous cases of violations of City Ordinances and in other matters of business pertaining to the City's welfare. This department is particularly indebted to City Judge Frank S. Rawley for his valuable assistance and cooperation with us in dealing with petty thieves and criminals of whom there have been many arrests during the past year. Cases of Petit Larceny are disposed of in this Court weekly, without any expense, thus saving the enormous court costs and delays that occurred in former years, which aggregated thousands of dollars yearly to the County for prosecutions, to say nothing of the unnecessary delays and subpoenæing of juries and other vexations that existed, all that is now done away with. Petit Larceny cases are disposed of in Police Court readily and without cost to the City or County.

Thanks are due to the different newspapers of this City and their representatives for their kindness and courtesy to us at all times and I am sure that I have endeavored to return the favors granted, realizing, as I do, the value and importance of newspapers and their representatives who are the eyes and ears of the people and are expected to furnish the news.

To Mayor Henry C. Steeg and Members of the Board of Public Safety I wish to return my sincere thanks for courtesy and kindness to myself and members of this department at all times. To the Citizens of this City for their hearty cooperation and assistance, this Department is under many obligations.

Each and every officer appointed on this department has been instructed to bear in mind that when he assumes the duties of a police officer that he is a conservator of the public peace, and that his acts and conduct at all times will be subject to the observation of the public. On the standpoint where an officer commences and the course he pursues will depend not only the peace and good order of the community in which he moves, but the credit of the City and that of the department to which he belongs. Those things will depend on his conduct as an officer and a man. No officer can be successful or efficient in the execution of his duties unless he understands the requirements of the law and ordinances and he should make himself familiar with them so as to be at all times prepared to meet any emergency. An officer in pursuance of his duties is expected to avoid, as much as possible, laying himself under personal obligations to anyone. His services and conduct as an officer should rather place others under obligations to him for the faithful discharge of his duty. He knows not how soon his duties may demand that he act in opposition to some individual interested. An officer should deal honorably with all persons, hold his word sacred no matter when, where or to whom given, and should lend a willing ear to all complaints made. The most unworthy have a right to be heard, and a word of comfort or advice to the afflicted and erring ones costs nothing and may do good.

James Knuckey.

James W. Greggs.

Marion Hutchings.

Each and every member of this department, I am proud to say, has followed the above instructions and has faithfully discharged his duty; many times with long hours and no extra compensation. The work has been done willingly and cheerfully.

To Lawrence O'Donnell, Jailer, and his estimable wife, Mrs. Catherine O'Donnell, Jail Matron, who has charge of all female prisoners confined in the County Jail, and to Mrs. Anna E. Palmateer, Police Matron, who, in the past year, has been of valuable assistance in taking charge of emergency cases, I wish to return my sincere thanks.

In conclusion I wish to state that to our very efficient and competent clerk of Police Department, Mr. Taylor Bledsoe, all credit is due for his complete report of work done by this department for year ending December 31, 1903.
